

Dangerous Air Pollution

It's "pollution season" in Chiang Mai right now, meaning the local farmers are burning their crops to clear their fields and our valley nestled in between the mountains is trapping all the harmful air pollutants. Our outside air is dangerous to breathe. We have 7 air filters cleaning the air in our home and air filter mesh on our air conditioners to keep the air in our home reasonably clean. When we go out we have to wear masks with air filters in them to protect our lungs. Our eyes often burn and feel irritated (think getting a puff of smoke in your face while around a campfire), and we usually wake up to headaches and sore throats. It's a challenging time in our little tropical part of the world, but we serve a God who's faithful through every season – even pollution season. Please pray for our health and perseverance during the upcoming weeks.

San Sai
Chiang Mai, Thailand

We're grateful for an opportunity to leave the city and go to the clean air of southern Thailand for 10 days. It's a 19-hour drive, so please also pray for safety as we drive south April 5-6 and then back home on April 13-14.

Kids Club Outreach

This month we coordinated 30 teens and adults coming from our international church here in Chiang Mai in holding a Kids Club for some local Thai children. We played games, sang songs, taught a Bible lesson, made a "Wordless Book" bracelet craft, and taught English lessons. An amazing Thai couple in our church leads this outreach weekly and it was such a blessing to partner with them for the morning. Please pray for these precious children and for our wonderful friends, New and Joyce, as they continue to love these kids and share Jesus with them every Saturday.

Greg's Old Testament Class

Greg's Old Testament Biblical Theology class has been going well! Last week Greg had a class session on Zoom with his students in which they addressed the imprecatory psalms. He was able to answer a number of questions and also provide teaching on how even in our anger we can leave justice up to God, which allows us to love our enemies. The class is now at its halfway point, so please pray for Greg and his students to have stamina and clear minds as the course continues.

Praises and Prayer Requests

Thank you so much for praising God with us and praying for our needs. Please email us with any prayer requests you have so that we can be praying for you as well!

- 1) Please pray for us as the air quality is very bad during this time of the year. Please also pray for safety as we will travel south to escape the smoke from April 5-14.
- 2) Praise God for our opportunity to minister at the Kids Club Outreach! Please pray for New and Joyce as they continue to minister to the kids on a regular basis.
- 3) Praise God that Greg's Old Testament class is going well! Pray for stamina as the course enters its second half.

Thank you so much for all of your love and support!
